Kearney is a daughter of Mrs. Kearney and the late Capt. George F. Kearney, U. S. N.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Winslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winslow, and Lieut. Robert S. Lowell, U. S. N., was solemnized at Trinity Church, Boston, by Dr. Alex. Mann, rector of the church. Miss Winslow's only attendant was her younger sister, Miss Sarah H. Winslow. The best man was Lieut. Rufus King, at present stationed in this city. Lieut. and Mrs. Lowell will spend the summer at Jamestown, R. I., and in the fall will make their home in New York City.

Announcement has been made in Baltimore by Mrs. Nelson Perin of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marie Louise Perin, and Mr. William Whitridge. Both Miss Perin and Mr. Whitridge are prominent in Baltimore society.

Miss Perin is a sister of Mrs. Philip Haxall Harrison, of Baltimore; Mr. Lawrence Perin and Mr. Oliver Perin, of New York; Mr. Nelson E. Perin, of this city, and Mr. Bradford Perin, who has been living abroad for a number of years. They both belong to old and distinguished families.

Mr. Whitridge has two brothers, Mr. Morris Whitridge and Mr. John Whitridge, and is a member of the Maryland Club, the Baltimore Club, the Bachelors' Coalition, the Hunt Club and the Green Spring Valley Hunt Club.

The wedding will take place in the autumn.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Bacho Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Saltonstall Gould, to Mr. McAllister Coleman will take place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, in New York, in the presence of the families, and will be followed by a reception for relatives and close friends. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Arthur H. Judge.

Miss Gould will be attended by her sister, Miss Gladys Franklin Gould; Miss Harrison Worth Myatt and Miss Frances Emerson Coleman. Mr. Austin Nettell will be best man. Mr. Coleman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Caldwell Coleman. He was graduated from Columbia University in 1909.

Some Events of Interest

A reception was held at Waugh Methodist Episcopal Church Wednesday night in honor of Dr. F. M. McCoy, who, this month, begins the second year of his pastorate there. Representative Addison T. Smith, of Idaho; Maj. S. H. Walker, Dr. J. G. Moore, district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church, stationed at Buena Vista, N. D., and Mr. S. D. Hardy, superintendent of the Sunday school, spoke of Dr. McCoy and his excellent work at Waugh.

Solos were given by Mrs. Archie A. Grist and Mr. William F. Davis, with Mrs. John George Klein, accompanist. The large attendance testified the very high esteem in which Dr. and Mrs. McCoy are held by the people of Washington.

The I. B. G. Club held its fourth annual banquet at the home of Mr. Fred Speidel, 2309 First street. In addition to its regular members, friends and relatives were invited, including many out-of-town guests. Mr. Wady Imirie, president, presided at toast-master. Miss Louise Crut and Miss Elsie Nickerson sang several duets which were followed by classic dancing by Miss Edith Stine and Mr. Earl Haislip. The house was decorated with American Beauty roses, palms and club colors. Many new members were voted in at a previous meeting making the 1916 frolic a big success. Mr. and Mrs. George Speidel were chaperones.

Tuesday evening the Alpha Delta Sigma Fraternity held one of the smartest dances of the season at the Lafayette Hotel. It was their annual Easter dance and was held in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the local chapter. The affair was a closed dance being attended only by active and graduate members of the fraternity. Very elaborate and novel programs were used giving a history of the Washington chapter. Mr. and Mrs. C. Chester Caywood and Mr. and Mrs. Webster B. Wheeler chaperoned the party, among whom were Misses Ann, Carahan, Dickkin, Farris, Hamby, Joyce, Koerber, Lantier, Leitch, Palmer, Reid, Ritchie, Spruce, Stauffer, Trigg and Wells, and Messrs. Barnes, Beavers, Duffey, Hall, Harry, Hodges, Holmes, Howard, MacWhorren, Phillips, Ramey, Reed, Rocca, Rose and Wheeler.

The Decimus gave a very delightful informal dance and supper to its members and their ladies, Saturday, April 15, at the Masonic Temple, Brookland. After several hours of dancing, a seated supper was served. The table was tastefully decorated with violets and jonquils. The Decimus colors, blue and gold. During the repast each one present was given a token of interest. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. W. Wallace Nairn, and those present included Mr. Morrison Barr and Miss Eleanor Washington, Mr. Clay Holmes and Miss Dorothy Goode, Mr. Joseph McPhaul and Miss Anna Leemister, Mr. C. Bennit Molster and Miss Jean Molster, Mr. Geoffrey Nairn and Miss Helen Haas, Mr. Wallace Nairn, Jr., and Miss Grace Atkinson, Mr. Harold O'Connell and Miss Mary Durling, Mr. Francis Ward and Miss Helen Robinson, Mr. Herbert Williams and Miss Lela Hawkins and Mr. Ralph Wilson and Miss Molster.

The Decimus Easter dance was held on Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Wilson sent pink rose buds, pink and white carnations and maiden hair ferns for decorations for the entertainment, "An Evening in Old Dixieland," given April 25 and 26 under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy, for the Confederate Memorial Home.

Mme. Edythe Marmion Brosius charmed the audience by her brilliant playing on the first evening and on the second night. Miss Margaret O'Toole, harpist, gave a delightful program. Samuel Wardell, violinist, and Mr. W. R. Sulhof, tenor, delighted every one with the solo, "The Songs My Mother Used to Sing."

Miss Carrie Smith was the accompanist.

Mr. Wallace Orme sang to harp accompaniment by Miss O'Toole. Mr. Harry Waller also gave interesting violin selections. Miss Lila Watts Collins, Mr. William Harrison and Mr. Charles L. Hall assisted with the program.

Miss Blanche Van C. Meegan had entire charge of arrangements and musical program. Among those who worked to make the affair a success were Mrs. W. A. Wayne, President Beauregard Chapter, U. D. C.; Miss Margaret Walsh, Mrs. Spindler, Mrs. Margaret Berry, Mrs. Covington, Miss Kate Collins, Mrs. Beatrice Van C. Morgan, Mrs. Lyle, Mrs. Holtzman, Mrs. Corolla, Mrs. Moody, Miss Cary Peachy, Mrs. Duns-Louth, Miss Lillian Turpin, Miss Lily Abraham, Mrs. Danney, Miss Eliza Holland, Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Dietrich, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. L. County Fair at Friendship.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the "county fair" for the benefit of the Washington District Kitchen to be held May 20 at "Friendship" have suggested novel additions to the program. These include fortune telling by one of the most expert palmists in the country, a unique auction sale, the presence of a lady with a hundred pockets for grab bags, and the disposition of many booths for the sale of ice cream, candy, fancy articles, hats, etc. Tables may be reserved for the cabaret performances, where guests may witness the fashion review and specially arranged dances. General dancing will follow.

Visitors in the Smart World

Mrs. Martha S. Gielow, who was the guest of the Misses Riggs during the D. A. R. Congress, returned to New York on Monday. During her visit to Washington, Mrs. Gielow was the recipient of many courtesies, chief among which was the presentation of a very beautiful loving cup by the Southern Industrial Educational Association, of which she is founder, in recognition of the great work she has done.

Mrs. Gielow's address before the Daughters of the American Revolution, illustrated by the flag story from her book, "The Light on the Hill," was one of the delightful bits of the congress, in addition to which was the reading of her poem, "Line Up for Uncle Sam," by Miss Eggleston. The poem has been set to music and is called "The Battle Song for Preparedness."

Miss Lillian Menough, who has been visiting Lieut. C. F. B. Price, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Price at the ride range, Winthrop, Md., returned home Thursday.

Music will be furnished by members of the Marine Band.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

An important visitor at the Greenbrier is Lady Ross, of Quebec and Balmagown, Scotland, the wife of Sir Charles Ross Bart, whose castle in the Scottish Highlands has been transformed into a war hospital for wounded soldiers. Lady Ross goes from here to spend a few days in Washington and will go thence to Quebec to open the house which she has taken for the summer. It is possible she may return for a brief visit to England in June to inspect the hospitals in which she is interested. She has been most active here and has given several luncheons and dinners at the Colonial Club.

Sir Richard Crawford, of Washington, counsel for the British embassy, arrived here on Monday accompanied by Lady Crawford.

One of the most popular bachelors at the Greenbrier this season is Mr. William Pitt Cresson, of Washington. He has dined this week with Lady Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Harry La Montague, Mrs. W. Delaney Kountze, Mr. Eugene O'Neill, and Mrs. James Showan. He has been playing golf occasionally and was out on Saturday with D. Lorne McGibbon, of Montreal, who joined Mrs. McGibbon here over Easter.

Baltimore was represented in the Easter colony at the Greenbrier by Mr. and Mrs. Edward McC. Fisher and their young son, Mr. J. H. Lee Fisher. They were prominent in the golf and riding set and also drove to Elmhurst Farm and the Log Cabin for luncheons.

Capt. A. C. Hodgson, U. S. N., is spending some time at the Greenbrier in company of Mrs. Hodgson, and others here are Mrs. Norman Williams, of Washington, with her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Merritt.

The ladies of the Greenbrier have made over 1,000 yards of surgical gauze into hospital supplies for the allies during the past fortnight and are also on "kiddie kits" for war babies, when not otherwise occupied.
